

Broadcast over power lines will only make the interference to amateur radio and other services worse. These emissions will radiate. In my area we can't even use DSL due to power line coupling, that will also be made worse with BPL. These problems take years to resolve, please avoid them.